

The Conway Daily Sun

March 2, 2011

BRIEF CASE

MetLife Bank's Steve Eastman gets national honors

RAYMOND, Maine — MetLife Bank, N.A., announced this week that Steve Eastman of Raymond, Maine has been named the company's top reverse mortgage consultant in the country for 2010.

With a national workforce of over 275 reverse mortgage consultants, MetLife Bank will be recognizing Eastman's achievement by honoring him in March as a member of the MetLife Chairman's Club.

"We are pleased to recognize Steve Eastman for making significant contributions to MetLife Bank this past year," said Eric Declercq, MetLife Bank's national sales leader of reverse mortgages. "Steve has a passion for helping seniors maintain financial independence, and has helped hundreds of seniors learn about reverse mortgages in Maine and New Hampshire."

Steve Eastman

Prior to joining MetLife Bank, Eastman worked for eight years as a reverse mortgage specialist for Financial Freedom, educating seniors and their families about reverse mortgages. He has owned and managed several businesses in Maine, and graduated from Husson College in Bangor with a degree in Business.