

Country Home

JULY/AUGUST 2007

Let's Go Antiquing!

Homes, Ideas and Dealer Tips

Our Readers' Favorite Issue!

LOOK FOR IT

THE SUNDANCE STORE GRAND OPENING

WHEN: End of June

WHERE: Park Meadows
Shopping Center outside
Denver, Colorado

WHY: The 5,300-square-foot store has the handcrafted rustic look and feel of the popular Sundance Catalog. This is the company's very first retail store, and it carries the same artisan-made merchandise, including jewelry, home furnishings, shoes, bags, clothing, and gifts. For more information, visit www.sundancecatalog.com.

THE AMERICAN CRAFT SHOW

WHEN: August 10-12

WHERE: Fort Mason Center
in San Francisco

WHY: In its 32nd year, this event showcases more than 250 leading artists and crafters and their one-of-a-kind works. Some of this year's favorite artists are Shu Lu, who makes fashion-forward clothing; Steve Baldwin, who crafts classic wooden toys; Chanin Cook, who creates furniture from fossils and petrified wood; and Kate Barrere, who incorporates found objects into her mixed media. For more information, visit www.craftcouncil.org.