Mini Movie Night

Many projectors are bulky, complex, and often in the $1,000+ range. But Samsung's SP-H03 Pico Projector is a smart solution for families. It fits into the palm of your hand for easy travel, so you can download videos from your computer or MP3 player to watch at Grandma's. ($300; bestbuy.com)

The Real Club Penguin

Our latest Web obsession takes bird-watching to a whole new level. We've been stalking our black-and-white feathered friends online at calacademy.org/webcams/penguins. The zoo's free streaming cameras have three angles of adorableness (we think the underwater cam is the best), and your kids will get a big kick out of viewing the daily feedings, which are at 10:30 and 3:30 PST.
