Experience a Chocolate-Covered NightLife on December 16th

Dec 7, 2010

There's an upcoming chocolate-themed ~NIGHTLIFE~ event at the California Academy of Sciences (as many of you may know, the museum hosts an adult-only/21 and over NightLife event each Thursday with varying themes). On Thursday December 16th, there will be beverages like Bison Brew's Chocolate Stout, and chocolaty beverages from Pisco Bar and Blue Angel Vodka. You'll also be able to watch a truffle and ganache demonstration by the experts at La Bonne Cuisine, and indulge your sweet tooth with tastings from TCHO and other local chocolatiers. Music on the main floor will be provided by mash-up masters Adrian and Mysterious D of Bootie, and in the aquarium by Al Kal. 6pm-10pm. Tickets are $12 ($10 for members).
