Valley of the Temples expanding acreage

NorthStar Memorial Group, the Texas-based owner of Valley of the Temples Memorial Park, has begun expansion with construction of a 10-acre parcel named Ocean View Terrace.

The property includes land for more than 3,700 burial plots, whether for individual burials or family plots.

The property also will include what developers call a cremation garden with 1,000 spots for various types of inurnment, as well as 500 companion niches for couples wishing to be buried next to each another. A waterfall-fed stream will wend its way through the development, which will feature a Japanese garden. The expanded acreage is due to open in the winter.
