Costa at Costa

Glass blower Simon Pearce will introduce the Costa line at the South Coast Plaza store on Thursday.

Vermont-based glass blower and tabletop designer Simon Pearce makes a rare visit to Southern California today to introduce a sleek new collection of handblown, sandblasted vessels and lighting. The Costa line's vases, bowls and pillar table lamp (shown here, $445) are named for the location of Pearce's latest retail store, which opened in June in Costa Mesa. Dinnerware and stemware will follow early next year. South Coast Plaza, 3333 Bear St.; (714) 825-0477; www.simonpearce.com.
