

Hires and promotions, July 30

By Jillian Sullivan

July 29, 2014

Troon Pacific hired Paul Rabinovitch as executive vice president. Photo: Courtesy Troon Pacific

Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck LLP added Louis Castoria as a partner in its San Francisco office and as director of its West Coast professional liability practice group.

---

Pulido-Walker Winery named Daniel Ha estate ambassador.

---

Deloitte hired David Wright, senior vice president and deputy director of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco's supervision and regulation division, as a managing director in its risk advisory practice.

---

ZeroFOX appointed Dr. Shane Shook chief strategy officer.

---

ThreatStream hired Hugh Njemanze as chief executive officer. Njemanze was formerly the co-founder, chief technology officer and executive vice president of research and development at ArcSight.

---

Asian Art Museum appointed Dr. Tianlong Jiao as the museum's new curator of Chinese art.

---

Troon Pacific hired Paul Rabinovitch as executive vice president.

---

Withers Bergman hired cross-border mergers and acquisitions attorney Nancy Yamaguchi as partner.

---

AT&T hired Daren Chan as area manager of external affairs for Alameda County.

---

DLA Piper added Shane Albright as a partner in the firm's corporate and finance practice.