

Morning Notes

by Aaron Kraut | 25 views | November 6, 2012 at 9:30 am | 0 Comments

Posted in: NEWS

B-CC Girls Soccer Wins 5th Straight Region Title — The girls soccer team at Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School has won four straight state titles and will get a shot at a fifth after defeating Bethesda rival Walt Whitman in last night's region title game. [The Gazette]

Bethesda Row Wine Lounge Opening Friday — Vino Volo, the California-based airport wine lounge and small plates restaurant, is opening its first standalone location on Bethesda Row on Friday. [Vino Volo]

County Council Coming to Potomac for Town Hall Meeting — Members of the Montgomery County Council will come to the Potomac Community Recreation Center (11315 Falls Rd., Potomac) on Wednesday at 8 p.m. for a town hall meeting. Topics discussed are expected to include development, utilities, traffic, schools and budget issues.