

Third Walmart In Vacaville To Open August 14!

Hidden behind the mound of construction, storage boxes and caution tape, at the corner of Elmira Road and Nut Tree Road sits yet another Vacaville Walmart, a second Neighborhood Market.

A giant sign on the side reads opening August 14 at 7:30AM.

What do you think, a Superstore and two Neighborhood Markets a little over kill for a town, population 93K? Or do you like the idea of another one? Anyone checked out the store that opened earlier this month?
