Walmart's newest Elk Grove store is expected to open to customers just after 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 13.

The 148,000-square foot building, at the corner of Bruceville Road and Whitelock Parkway, will open with about 260 employees, Patch reported.

This Walmart location will house a limited selection of groceries (there will be no fresh meats or items sold by weight), a garden center, pharmacy, a photo center and a Subway restaurant, according to a press release.

Walmart will also give back to the community through ongoing donations. During its grand opening celebration, $4,000 in grants from Walmart and the Walmart Foundation will be presented to local organizations including Elk Grove Food Bank Services and the Elk Grove Police Activities League, according to a press release.

Store manager Jorge Sabido has lived in Elk Grove for 11 years and worked for Walmart nearly 20 years, he told Patch.

"I'm pleased to be opening this new Walmart store in my hometown of Elk Grove," Sabido said in a press release. "We look forward to serving the people of our community and helping save them money so they can live better."
