

By Eric Rucker

March 8, 2013

Long Line Forms for New Elk Grove Walmart

ELK GROVE—

An hour before the new Walmart on Bruceville road in Elk Grove opened its doors, a line had already formed with those anxious to get inside their new neighborhood box store.

"I couldn't sleep last night," said Lou Mckenzie, who lives a few blocks away. "It's great for the community."

Walmart officials say 200 jobs were added by opening up this location, which also features a variety of ethnic food choices not typically found in Walmart stores.

<http://fox40.com/2013/03/13/long-line-forms-for-new-elk-grove-walmart/>