Re "Unions' ad campaign takes aim at employer pay scales" (The Buzz, May 29): Rewarding careers are to be found here in Sacramento, at Wal-Mart, my employer for more than 10 years. I started as an assistant manager at Wal-Mart 11 years ago and worked my way up to store manager in Rancho Cordova. Wal-Mart enabled me and my family to weather the economy's ups and downs.

In the greater Sacramento area, Walmart is adding almost 465 new jobs this year with the opening of stores in Elk Grove, Woodland and Rocklin.
