San Francisco Museum of Craft+Design presents FourSite: 4 Artists | 4 Materials | 4 Sites
May 27 – September 19, 2010

Artists in Action: Exhibition installation open for public viewing, May 27 – June 10
Four California artists create distinctive compositions of wood, paper, fiber and metal

WHAT: Four California artists will transform the San Francisco Museum of Craft+Design (SFMC+D) with four distinctive, large-scale installations of wood, paper, fiber and metal in FourSite: 4 Artists | 4 Materials | 4 Sites, a new exhibition on view at SFMC+D, May 27 – September 19, 2010. Artists Tanya Aguiniga, Paul Hayes, Christine Lee and Tom Hill will compose and sculpt space, creating innovative, expansive forms that allow for wonder and imagination. Tanya Aguiniga of Los Angeles, Calif. unravels fiber to create an all-encompassing, textured environment, while Tom Hill of San Francisco, Calif. welds metal to convey exaggerated elements from the natural world. Paul Hayes of San Francisco, Calif. forms lively and voluminous swarms and clusters of paper, and Christine Lee of Oakland, Calif. layers scraps of wood to extend interior surfaces. Through innovative installations, the FourSite artists will re-contextualize the traditional mediums of paper, fiber, metal and wood, pushing their artistic limits to new heights. SFMC+D invites the public to watch the artists in action during the exhibition installation, May 27 – June 10.
