EVENT DETAILS

CHAPEL OF THE CHIMES OAKLAND HOSTS FREE SCREENING OF "GINA'S JOURNEY: THE SEARCH FOR WILLIAM GRIMES"

Chapel of the Chimes Oakland partners with the Oakland chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to celebrate Black History Month with a free screening of Gina's Journey: The Search for William Grimes on Monday, Feb. 19 at 11 a.m. The screening will be followed with remarks from Sean Durant, the film's director/producer. A lunch reception will be held after the program.

Gina's Journey: The Search for William Grimes follows the quest of one woman, Regina Mason, in tracing the steps of her ancestor who traveled along the Underground Railroad to freedom and authored the first fugitive slave narrative in United States history.
