

National, state parks have free admission offers

By Staff Reports

11/08/17

Admission to national parks is free Saturday and Sunday in recognition of Veterans Day. That includes Lassen Volcanic National Park.

California State Parks is also offering free admission to 142 parks Saturday to veterans, active duty and reserve military personnel.

A valid military ID must be shown in order to receive free admission to the state parks. Participating state parks include 134 parks that are accessible with the "California Explorer" annual pass, the California State Railroad Museum, and eight State Vehicular Recreation Areas.

The parks include Lake Oroville State Recreation Area and Bidwell-Sacramento River State Park. For the full list, go to www.parks.ca.gov.

In addition, Save the Redwoods League and State Parks are providing 2,500 free vehicle day-use passes for Nov. 24 at 40 participating redwood state parks.

Passes are available on a first-come, first-served basis at RedwoodsFriday.org. A number of locations area already sold out.