

Account News In Brief (September 14, 2015)

New business success for Landis, French/West/Vaughan, Nancy J Friedman, Bullman+Baum, Duff & Shanley, Crosby, Strategic Objectives, Fish, Bob Gold, Chic Influence.

SAN FRANCISCO—Landis Communications has added new clients including On Lok, a nonprofit organization providing health and well-being services to the elderly and critically ill, which hired LCI to drive brand awareness, partnerships, new clients, visitorship and donations; 399 Fremont Street, a new real estate development; The Shanti Project, a nonprofit, dedicated to the well-being of people living with life-threatening illnesses, which retained LCI to manage communications around its merger with PAWS (Pets Are Wonderful Support); and Art Silicon Valley San Francisco.

http://www.holmesreport.com/latest/article/account-news-in-brief-\(september-14-2015\))