

Kadel promoted at California Bank & Trust

Michael Kadel, senior vice president and business center manager for the North Bay and San Francisco, California Bank and Trust

SAN RAFAEL — California Bank & Trust expanded responsibilities for Michael Kadel, senior vice president, business center manager for the San Francisco and North Bay markets. Kadel is also a new member as of June 11 of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

In addition to managing California Bank & Trust's business banking team in the North Bay, Kadel added San Francisco to his territory, serving mid-market businesses and high-net-worth customers.

Kadel has more than 25 years in banking, including regional branch management, commercial and business banking, relationship management, lending, private banking, sales management and banking operations.

"I am delighted to take on more responsibilities and territory at California Bank & Trust," Kadel said. "We're proud of the high quality of expertise and award-winning service that CB&T delivers to clients."

Kadel was president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and Marin Economic Forum, and on boards in Marin County and for the state of California, including Hospice by the Bay and California Family Health Council.

California Bank & Trust, a subsidiary of Zions Bancorporation (NASDAQ: ZION), is one of the largest banks headquartered in California, with more than $11 billion in assets and nearly 100 branches statewide. The institution has one North Bay office, in San Rafael.
