

Tuesday November 07, 2017

QUICK TAKES

Pianist Sarah Cahill is slated to perform for Interfaith Welcome Bay Area, an umbrella organization assisting refugees new to the Bay Area, at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Zion Lutheran Church, 495 Ninth Ave. in The City. Tickets are $15 to $25 for the concert, with proceeds going to the Vision Project, which helps refugee girls in the Oakland schools envision their futures in America. ... Sam Hodder, president of Save the Redwoods League, and California State Parks Director Lisa Manga announced a new program offering free day-use admission to some California redwood state parks on the day after Thanksgiving, available on a first-come, first serve basis. For information on which parks still have passes available, visit www.redwoodsfriday.org.

<http://bit.ly/2ydKmHh>