NAACP Oakland Honors Local Volunteer With “Behind The Scenes” Award for Continued Dedication and Service

NAACP’s Oakland Chapter recognizes Doug Mutchler, Sales Manager at Chapel of the Chimes Oakland, at Third Annual Service Award Fundraising Gala

Doug Mutchler, sales manager at Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland, Calif., accepts the “Behind the Scenes” award from the Oakland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) at Scott’s Seafood Grill & Bar on April 9, 2015. NAACP Oakland honored Mutchler at its third annual Service Award Fundraising Gala for his continued dedication and service as a volunteer for the organization. Mutchler has worked closely with NAACP Oakland for more than 4 years.

“Working with everyone at NAACP Oakland is a wonderful and humbling experience, and receiving this award means a lot to me,” said Mutchler. “I greatly appreciate the work they do to help build up our communities, give our youth hope and make continual strides to support one another.”
