FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIO, November 24, 2014 -- California Bank & Trust (CB&T) moved its Indio branch from 81-701 Highway 111 to a new location less than a mile away at 80-250 Highway 111 -- across the street from Shields Date Gardens. Remaining in Indio, the new location is closer to many of the retailers in La Quinta, providing convenience for Indio residents.

"We continue to serve our CB&T customers with the superior customer service they have come to expect," said Bob Weidemann, Senior Vice President at California Bank & Trust. "We've been an integral part of the Indio Community since originally opening this office as the locally founded Bank of Indio back in October 1978. In fact, we still have some of the original employees as well as several banking relationships that span these past 36 years. We take great pride in serving Indio's business community with a full range of banking services."

Throughout CB&T's time in the region, local staff has collected artist-signed posters from the local Southwest Arts Festival. Those posters are now framed and on display at the new location.

Confirming the bank's commitment to customer service throughout California, CB&T was voted "Best Bank" in 2014 by the readers of the Orange County Register. CB&T was also voted "Best Bank" and "Best Commercial Bank" for 2014 by the readers of the San Diego Union-Tribune.

The previous branch location closed on Friday, November 7, 2014 and the new branch opened the following Monday morning, November 10, 2014. There was no change to customer account numbers and all services continue as they have previously. Customers with any questions about the move are encouraged to call (760) 347-6156 to speak with a CB&T representative.
