NATIVE TRAILS ANNOUNCES NEW LINE OF HAND-HAMMERED COPPER AND NATIVESTONE™ TABLES

California company parlays global success of its iconic, sustainable bathroom and kitchen designs into furniture with introduction of tables to its portfolio

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIF. (June 1, 2015) – Native Trails, the eco-chic company renowned for its luxurious artisan-made kitchen, bath and lifestyle products, enters the world of contemporary furnishings this month with its new hand-hammered copper-top and NativeStone™ tables collection. The three distinctive designs in Native Trails’ dining room and conference room table collection are available in numerous sizes. They continue the company’s tradition of creating functional artisan-made pieces that make use of natural materials, including recycled copper and NativeStone.

The Farmhouse, Trestle and Chalet Tables answer the call for quality rustic and farmhouse-style furnishings to complement today’s eclectic modern spaces. The tabletops are offered in both recycled, hammered copper and NativeStone, a sustainable concrete material.

Forged from premium recycled copper, each one-of-a-kind copper tabletop is hand-crafted using age-old techniques. Thousands of hammer strikes from expert coppersmiths reveal the lustrous sheen, luxurious texture and rich veins of copper. The other tabletop option available for tables up to 72”, is Native Trails’ exclusive NativeStone material, constructed using an innovative mixture of jute fiber and cement. NativeStone weighs approximately 40 percent less than standard concrete – and its exclusive nanosealer renders it highly stain resistant.

Table bases are crafted of Forest Stewardship Council (FSC®) certified acacia, a sustainably grown hardwood cultivated on small plantations by farmers in Vietnam. These farmers work with an international coalition to help reforest barren, war-torn land. Each heirloom-quality piece is designed to last for generations.

“We’ve quietly created custom copper-top tables for years now, but this collection, which now includes NativeStone, represents the first time we’ve made our tables available on this scale,” said CEO Naomi Neilson Howard. “Our clientele has come to trust in the quality, inspired design and one-of-a-kind artisanship inherent in Native Trails’ sinks, bathtubs and bath vanities. Knowing this, we hope they will invite our products into other parts of the home, too.”

Farmhouse Table, the first of the collection, is versatile enough to be at home in a country kitchen or a loft with a rustic-modern vibe or to serve as a focal point in an elegant corporate conference room. Offered in five different sizes, up to 14 people can gather around this instant conversation piece. (Available in 72”, 96”, 120”, 144” and 144” wide with an Antique Copper or Tempered Copper top, available in 72” with NativeStone top)

Trestle Table – inspired by the strength and imposing presence of a trestle bridge – is built to last. This table is ideal for use in a warm mountain lodge, an artfully designed dining room, or a chic conference room. (Available in 72”, 96”, 120”, 144” and 144” wide with an Antique Copper or Tempered Copper top, available in 72” with NativeStone top)

Chalet Table balances sophistication and strength. It is versatile enough to serve as the dramatic centerpiece of a breakfast nook, a game room or a corporate meeting room. Chalet Table is offered in two sizes, which can seat up to six people. (Available in 42” and 60” with an Antique Copper, Tempered Copper or NativeStone top)
