

Atlanta

6 trends to help you transform your bathroom into a stylish sanctuary

Here are some fresh ideas from Atlanta's top designers

BY BECCA BEATO AND MARY LOGAN BIKOFF | SEPTEMBER 18, 2018

Freestanding Tubs

The soaking tub by American Standard gets a tropical backdrop from the Clarke & Clarke wallpaper from Duralee.

No longer relegated to a dark corner, the bathtub gets its moment in the sun. Whether spotlighted in an alcove or under a sunny window, like in this project by Amy Weaver of Terracotta Design Build, it's now the star of the room.

Avalon 72, $8,990, Native Trails, nativetrails.net

Dramatic Basins

The vanity is an antique candy making table the designer found that was in keeping with the 1920s-era home. The wall-mounted faucet is from Watermark Designs.

In a powder room, there's no tub to take center stage. The sink, like this vintage Turkish marble basin in a bathroom by designer Yvonne McFadden, gets a chance to step up.

Tatra sink in polished copper, price upon request, Native Trails

This article appears in our Fall 2018 issue of Atlanta Magazine's HOME.

<https://bit.ly/2pigZQZ>