10 Best Bets at KBIS and TISE

 Paige Magarrey

From January 19 to 22, Las Vegas is home to Design & Construction Week, which welcomes 100,000 design professionals and 2,500 exhibitors. Here are 10 not-to-be-missed launches happening at two key shows: the Kitchen and Bath Industry Show (KBIS) and The International Surfaces Event (TISE).

6 Native Trails' Avalon tub

The California brand is well known for its copper tubs and sinks, but Native Trails' NativeStone wares are gaining momentum. The material – a hardier and more eco-friendly alternative to concrete – is combined with natural jute fibre in the new Avalon tub, on display at KBIS. The lightweight, freestanding soaker is hand-formed and finished by artisans with extra-thick walls to keep the water hot.
