FRESH TAKES

A Little Bit Luxe

Famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright once said, “Give me the luxuries of life and I will willingly do without the necessities.” We’re not suggesting you cut out the kitchen or bid the bedrooms adieu, but adding a few indulgences here and there can enhance your log home enjoyment.

Bathroom Bling

This Maestro Collection brushed nickel sink adds a subtle sheen to a rustic powder room. The hand-forged sink by Native Trails, which sits above the counter, is also available in an antique copper finish. nativetrails.net, 800-786-0862
