Artisanal Bath Fixtures

1. Artful lines and natural materials distinguish the DXV Lowell console sink. Slender, tapered wood legs in a light ash are accented with textured leather. NYC, dxv.com. 2. Beauty and practicality merge in the hand-hammered Maestro vessel sink from Native Trails in a warm-toned polished nickel.

*Through Klaffs, Norwalk, klaffs.com, nativetrails.net. 3. The monolith Code washbasin designed by Piero Lissoni for Boffi is a sculptural addition to a powder or bathroom in Onyx or Emperador marble with a brushed-brass integrated basin. NYC, boffi.com. 4. A Moorish pattern in deep relief is hand-pressed in the Walker Zanger Andalucia tiles. The layered geometric shapes are accentuated by a delicately applied glaze. Port Chester, NY, walkerzanger.com. 5. The warmth and characteristics of wood are re-created in the engineered tub from JM-Lifestyles cast in a reinforced composite concrete. *Through Bender, Norwalk, benderplumbing.com, jmlifestyles.com. 6. Unique in shape and finish, the Nirvana Palla sink from Thompson Traders doubles as a piece of art in the bathroom. The rectangular basin is handcrafted in copper and embellished with a textural finish. *Through Frank Webb's Bath Center Stamford, frankwebb.com.
