

North Fresno Walmart looks to hire 80

Walmart announced its hiring 80 new associates for the expanded north Fresno store which will be completed this fall.

A hiring kiosk has been opened inside the store at 7065 N. Ingram Ave. and applications will be accepted Monday through Saturday from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Applicants may also apply online at careers.walmart.com. The store is looking for both full- and part-time associates.

“We are excited to offer additional jobs to the community as well as a larger, improved store,” said Mike Buchta, manager at the Ingram store.

As part of the Veterans Welcome Home Commitment launched in 2013, Walmart will offer a job to any eligible U.S. veteran honorably discharged from active duty. Interested veterans may find out more at walmartcareerswithamission.com.

Eligible associates can receive benefits including a 401(k) plan and quarterly incentives based on store performance.

The majority of new associates will begin work this summer to help prepare the store for its grand opening.
