

Year of the Monkey Celebration in San Francisco

Feb. 12 and 17

This is a very special and unique opportunity to see the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) in action as its lion dance team performs traditional Chinese lion and dragon dances at a Chinese New Year celebration. On Lok, a leading Bay Area senior services non-profit organization, is partnering with the SFPD in honor of On Lok's 45th anniversary. They will kick off the festivities and ring in the New Year by casting out bad spirits with loud drums and cymbals. Ear plugs are recommended. On Lok recognizes, supports, and salutes the ethnic cultures of the Bay Area in this annual celebration.

Tickets and Information

Admission is free, and transportation shuttles are available for seniors if needed.

The SFPD lion dance performances will take place at the following On Lok Pace Centers:

Feb. 12 at 11am: 30th Street PACE Center (Noe Valley/Mission)

Feb. 17 at 10:30am: Gee PACE Center (Polk/Gulch)
415-319-6661

www.onlok.org/On-Lok-Inc/Events/Chinese-New-Year

COURTESY OF ON LOK

