By 7x7 Editors

February 04, 2016

Lunar New Year

What: In what is one of the strangest partnerships we've yet encountered, the SFPD is joining forces with On Lok to honor the upcoming Lunar New Year. The SFPD's Lion Dance Team (yes, you read that correctly) will perform traditional Chinese dragon and lion dances for the senior participants and staff members of On Lok to celebrate the coming of spring, and cast out bad spirits with loud drums and cymbals. You don't want to miss this.

When: February 10th, 10:30am.

Where: Powell Pace Center: 1441 Powell St. (North Beach).
