

San Francisco Chronicle

Winter's over, and around the bay, everyone's spiffing up

May 8, 2017

Leah Garchik
Features Columnist

On Lok Lifeways, a health plan for seniors, and the Academy of Art University partnered on Wednesday, May 3, for an event in which 20 Academy students made drawings of On Lok-served seniors. Their teacher, Craig Marshall, spoke of the mutual benefits of the project:

“Everyone is important on this day, model and artist alike.” When the three-hour sessions were done, the drawings were given to the students who posed for them.

<http://bit.ly/2qidiH0>